Special Instructions for PubMed Searches  www.pubmed.gov

Remember PubMed does not include the full text to the articles.

Here are the steps demonstrated during Research Instruction Class:
First find article citation you need:

Mouse over the journal title for the complete journal title.

It Might be best to work in two browser tabs. Keep PubMed open. Open another browser tab – just as we did in class.

Go to the Library Homepage

Click E-Articles / E-books tab

Click E-Journals List – Third link in the yellow box
Type in the complete journal title name from Pubmed

Enter International Psychogeriatrics in the E-Journals List search box Click SEARCH button

Result below indicates that WCC Library does not have this journal either in print or in electronic format.

If you still want this article from PubMed. You can either

1. Find a local library that has a subscription to International Psychogeriatrics  OR
2. Request an InterLibrary Loan for the article – Library will get this for you but may take 2 weeks. See below. You can email Brooke Regensburg at bregensburg@wccnet.edu with your complete article citation. She will process your request and notify you when it arrives.

Another example of PubMed search with access to the Full Text at WCC Library

Mouse over the journal title for the complete journal title.

It Might be best to work in two browser tabs. Keep PubMed open. Open another browser tab – just as we did in class.
Go to the Library Homepage

Click E-Articles and E-books

Click E-Journals List
